

STUDENTS

become a part of history
and you could win
a trip to Washington DC!

Would you like to see history come alive? You can! Join our nationwide online video contest and compete for great prizes! Interview a veteran and create a 3-5 minute video essay!

The Veterans Video History Contest is a nationwide video competition open to students, ages 13-18.

ARCHIVES - Signup via our website to receive an instructional PDF. Film an interview with a veteran and follow instructions to mail the full unedited interview to be archived at the Library of Congress.

CONTEST - Edit the interview into a 3-5 minute video essay of the veteran's service. FREE archival footage, and editing resources are available upon registration to give your film a creative edge! Then mail the video essay to us to be judged.

WHEN - Submissions open June 20 - December 7, 2016

To learn more about the Veterans Video History Contest visit:

www.HistoryContest.org

NO PURCHASE NECESSARY TO ENTER OR WIN IN THE VETERANS VIDEO HISTORY CONTEST. Open to legal residents of the 50 US & DC, who are between 13 & 18 years of age & currently enrolled in a public or private junior high or high school, or home-schooled with an accredited & recognized home-schooling program. A minor should have a parent's or legal guardian's permission to enter. Void where prohibited. Official Rules are available at www.HistoryContest.org Sponsors: American Veterans Center & Worthington Foundation, Inc.